1. ANCIENT APPIAN WAY

Also known as "regina viarum", the Appian way was the first military road that reached Brindisi in the II BC and it was along this way that Jesus is said to have met St Peter before his martyrdom.

4. AVENTINE HILL

Legend has it that the Aventine Hill is where Remus chose to settle. Moreover on the hill is the famous "keyhole of Rome" from which you can see in perfect perspective, the dome of St. Peter!

2. St. JOHN LATERAN

The cathedral of the bishop of Rome, the Pope, and is thus known "Cathedral of Rome and of the World" is the first among the four major basilicas of Rome built by Emperor Constantine.

5. JANICULUM HILL

The sight from the Janiculum Hill is surely one of the most extraordinary of Rome and you can enjoy a beautiful view of the historic center of the city.

3. CIRCUS MAXIMUS AND PALATINE

The hill on which, according to legend, Rome had its origins and the largest sports facility for horse racing ever built in Rome!

6. St. PETER

The Centre of the Roman Catholic faith dedicated to the first Apostle and the first pope and leader of the Church, St. Peter's draws pilgrims from all over the world.
